

RISHIKUL SANATAN COLLEGE

HOME ECONOMICS

YEAR 9 WORKSHEET 3

1. Identify the types of family given below.

a. Parents living with their children only.

b. Both parents are already married with or without children before they remarry. This relationship can be identified by the prefix step.

2. Name the type of family shown in the illustration below.

a.

b.

c.

d

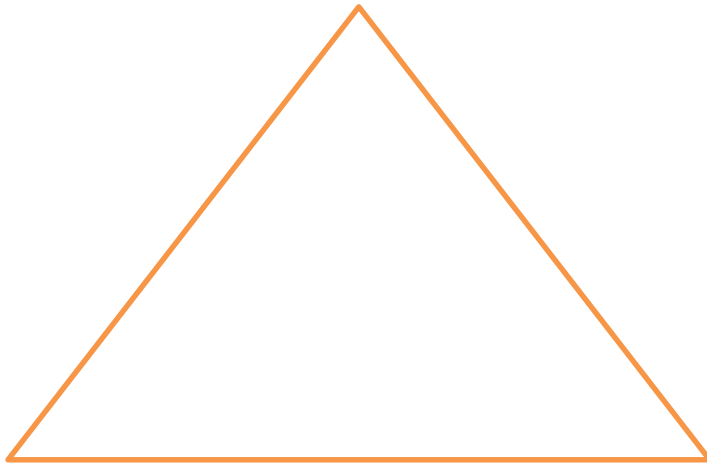

3. Discuss the following functions of the family.

a. Intellectual Function

b. Cultural Function

c. Social Function

4. Draw and label the Maslow's Hierarchy of needs.

5. Which type of need is fulfilled when someone praises a person for good work and helps to develop positive self-esteem?

6. List two characteristics of a child with high/positive self-esteem and two characteristics of a child with low/negative self-esteem.

High/positive self esteem

i) _____

ii) _____

Low/negative self esteem

i) _____

ii) _____

7. Identify the following 6C's of a happy family.

a. Being loyal to your family and friends for example supporting your little brother who is being bullied at school. _____.

b. Sacrificing your own time with your family members and friends for example giving company to other members of your family. _____.

c. Being thoughtful of the needs of others example showing courtesy.
_____.

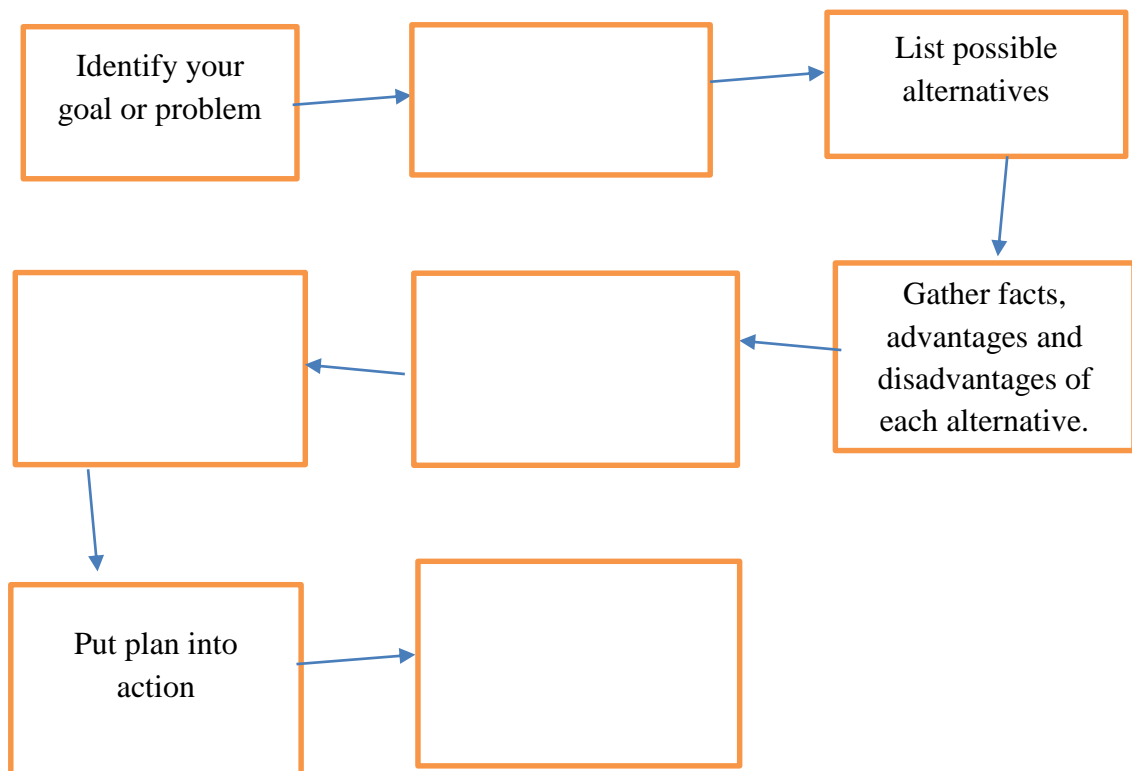

d. Members of the family express and exchange ideas through words and action example talking over family meals and sharing jokes and stories.

_____.

8. Define the term good citizenship and list two qualities of good citizenship.

9. Differentiate between values and goals.

10. Complete the Decision making process given below.

11. State the importance of evaluating a decision that you have already made.

12. Differentiate between human and non-human resources and give an example of each.

13. Define the following terms:

a. Conservation

b. Renewable resources

c. Non-Renewable Resources

14. Write two ways of managing resources at home.

15. Name two indigenous resources found in Fiji.

THE END